

OH2020

Online

The premier conference for occupational hygiene in the UK

Bringing us all together online

Tuesday 29 September to Thursday 1 October

JOIN FROM

ANYWHERE

Tuesday 29 September

Sponsored by
Life-saving solutions

JOHN DOBBIE
BOHS Immediate Past President-Chair and Katie Gray as committee representative

MORNING 9am and available throughout the event Learning Zone	Online content, pre-recorded webinars, new course details, free tasters and training provider information.
AFTERNOON 1pm Live session: Competence and education panel session	Welcome: John Dobbie - immediate past President
	Rene LeBlanc Strengthening and expanding IOHA and the reach of occupational hygiene globally, through collaboration and member engagement	Helen Taylor Using exposure assessment tools for interactive education	Thomas Fuller Building capacity through education communication and collaboration	Nancy McClellan Collaborations in impacting global occupational hygiene competency
2.30pm Break
2.45pm Ignite session Ignite is a concept which asks presenters to enlighten us but make it quick with 20 slides in five minutes advancing every 15 seconds. Technical presentations delivered with humour, passion and enthusiasm from a wide range of speakers.	Bill Thomas Water safety plans; an opportunity for fully integrated water safety	Sven Hoffmann Light off and sleep well	Tim Turney Don't make a storm out of a cyclone	Erica Joseph Workplace Health Without Borders (WHWB)	James Penn Day-to-day issues for occupational hygienists (or an ode to the unsung heroes of our time)
3.35pm	Noah Seixas The annals of work exposures and health and the future of OH science
	Entertainment TBC

Book now

bohs.org/oh2020-virtual-conference

Wednesday 30 September

ALISON MARGARY
 BOHS President Elect-Chair and Kirsty Phillips as committee representative

MORNING

10am

Live session: COVID-19

Welcome: Alison Margary

Kelvin Williams – chair with panel members: Rob Aitken, John Cherrie, Ray Agius and John Dobbie
 Panel debate session chaired by BOHS President Kelvin Williams: 'COVID-19 risk matrix'

11am Break

11.15am

Challenges and Analysis

Paul Humphrey
Face fit challenges and COVID-19

Mike Clayton
Challenges and responses in relation to RPE and COVID-19

Alex Hills
Bow-tie analysis

Lisa Brosseau
Control banding for COVID-19

12.35pm Lunch break

AFTERNOON

1.15pm

Live session: Infrastructure

Duncan Smith
HSE intervention with legionella third-party service providers

Lee Heffernan
Industrial hygiene emergency response plans – development and drilling

Lucetta Weaver
Raising capability in industrial hygiene emergency response

Adrian Parris
Legionella risk reduction via enhanced microbiological analysis

2.35pm Break

2.50pm

Lindsay Cook
AIHA President update 20

Clare Forshaw
Health Leadership 20

3.30pm Break

3.45pm

Entertainment

Thursday 1 October

KELVIN WILLIAMS
 BOHS President-Chair and Dave Flower as committee representative

MORNING

10am

Live session: Thermal and heat

Welcome: Kelvin Williams

Pedro Collins
Welding and hot work – advances to work controls driven by new manganese (Mn) exposure limit

Simon Hodder
International standards for the thermal environment – the current perspective

Richard Topliss
Working in the Middle East

Josh Foster
The Heat-Shield Project Ensuring the health and safety of workers exposed to environment heat stress in different industrial sectors

11.30am Break

11.45am

Live sessions: Noise and vibration

Andrei Feraru
Enhancement in hand arm vibration monitoring technology and technique

Peter Wilson
Open source noise control database – accessing the low hanging risk reduction fruit

Dave Greenberg
A hearing health innovation case study – don't be passive

Chris Steel
Getting companies to use competent consultants for noise at work surveys

1pm Lunch break

AFTERNOON

2pm

Moving Breathe Freely forward internationally, The Antipodeans approach

Chris Keen, Neil Pickering, Sharann Johnson, Laura Sands

3.20pm Close of conference by Kelvin Williams